Briggs & Veselka Co. CPAs and Business Advisors

Trust Counts.

Our commitment is to provide quality technical accounting, auditing, tax and business consulting services to both general contractors and subcontractors in the construction industry.

We have two tax partners and one audit partner with more than 25 years of experience each in dealing with various contractors, developers, and homebuilders and other construction-related companies. This experience includes performing audits, preparing tax returns, doing tax planning and, more importantly, providing reliable and unique business advice to assist companies in making sound financial and business decisions during the company's growth and success. We have partnered with these companies to enhance their success and growth of profits.
