Briggs & Veselka Co. CPAs and Business Advisors

Hands-on Experience and Expert Knowledge to Power you Forward.

The energy industry does not just drive world-wide markets. It is the foundation of our local economy. Whether you are directly involved in exploration and production or indirectly impacted by this dynamic industry, we can help.

It has never been more important to choose an accounting and consulting firm with credibility, expertise and superior service. Briggs & Veselka has experienced professionals to assist in identifying and addressing your unique risks and challenges as well as the expertise to provide cost-effective, tailored solutions.

Why Briggs & Veselka?

We take the time to understand your business.

Specialized skills. Relevant experience. Quality products and service. These traits have built the reputation of your company. You know your business, and your CPA firm should too. We understand the unique challenges facing this diverse industry - from regulatory changes to public perception.

As a decision maker in a constantly-evolving business environment, you realize that managing an organization is more complex than ever. That's why at Briggs & Veselka, we have assembled a team with an impressive track record of energy and energy-related experience. Our professionals include individuals that have had work experience with the Big Four accounting firms, the IRS and some of Houston's leading energy companies. Our team has worked with clients involved in exploration and production, oil field services, oil and gas partnerships, alternative energy sources, seismic data collection, oil and gas distribution, and supply and transportation.

We know our business.

All companies, from start-ups to mature market leaders, need the assurance that their advisors can not only handle their expanding and changing needs, but also the assurance that their work will be done correctly and delivered on time. We understand those needs.

Today's business environment is more complex than ever, and that's why we do more than provide accurate and timely information. We work with you to make sure your needs are efficiently and effectively met. Knowing our business and yours makes us a solid team – a team that can help ensure a solid foundation for the future of your company.

We emphasize dedication to client service and delivery of a high-quality, high value product. At Briggs & Veselka, we take the approach of proactively managing quality from the beginning of the project when priorities and expectations are established. Our quality management approach focuses on delivering superior client service in addition to quality products and processes.

Experience Counts.
